STILL I RISE

January 2025

Greetings,

We extend a warm invitation to you to participate in the National African American Insurance Association St. Louis Chapter (NAAIA STL) Third Annual Black History Month celebration – STILL I RISE. The event will take place on Thursday, February 27th, at 18Rails in Midtown St. Louis.

Join us for a reception from 5:30 pm – 6 pm, where you can connect with our members and board. Enjoy hors d'oeuvres and a program from 6 pm – 6:45 pm, followed by an evening of networking, socializing, and dancing to the tunes of a live DJ until 10pm.

This year's theme is "CELEBRATING OUR JOURNEY," highlighting the impact of the insurance and financial services industry on our culture—past, present, and future.

We are proud to honor Tony Thompson of the Kwame Building Group Inc. and The Kwame Foundation with the Colonel Clifton Gates Community Champion Award. His work exemplifies dedication to combating economic inequality, fostering community partnerships, and driving equitable development in St. Louis.

Additionally, we acknowledge and celebrate the Diversity Executive Champion of the Year, New York Life. Their commitment to diversity and inclusion has set a remarkable standard.

We invite you to join us as a sponsor for this historic event. Enclosed, you will find sponsorship and ticket information for STILL I RISE. Your support is crucial in helping us educate, empower, and attract a more diverse generation of insurance professionals for the future. We hope you will join us in honoring these outstanding professionals and contributing to the success of this memorable occasion.

Thank you for considering our invitation. We look forward to your positive response.

Warm regards,

Corey Tyson
President, NAAIA STL
